

September 15 - 17, 2025

Inclusion international | WORLD CONGRESS 2025

WE ARE INCLUSION

World Congress Draft Programme

About the World Congress Programme

This is the “Programme” for the World Congress.

The “Programme” is a list of everything that is happening during the World Congress.

There will be big sessions, small sessions, workshops, and lots of other activities!

You can use the Programme to decide which sessions you want to go to.

Closer to the World Congress, more information like the date and time of each session and which the room the session is happening in will be added.

What sessions are happening at the World Congress?

There will be sessions about lots of different topics at the World Congress.

Click the names below to see all of the sessions about that topic.

Closing Institutions

Community Support and Inclusion

Education

Employment

Global Advocacy

Health

International Development & Crisis Situations

Inclusive Participation

Legal Capacity - the right to decide

Self-advocacy

Support for families

Skills for Organisations

Other topics

Sessions about Closing Institutions

These sessions are about closing institutions.

Institutions are places where people with intellectual disabilities:

- are separated from the community
- live together in groups
- do not have control or choice about their lives.

The Survivor's Network: How people who lived in institutions are working to shut them down

Hosted by Inclusion International

The Survivors Network is a group at Inclusion International for self-advocates who lived in institutions before, but now live in the community instead. In this session, survivors of institutions from around the world will talk about their stories, and why it is important to work together.

Closing Institutions

Closing Doors, Transforming Communities

Hosted by the Canadian Institute for Inclusion & Citizenship

People with disabilities and their families used the courts to force the province of Nova Scotia in Canada not just to close its institutions, but to make big changes to the way people with disabilities are supported. This session will share how the court case has changed what inclusive communities look like in Nova Scotia, and what other communities can learn from it.

Closing an Institution: Real Stories from Survivors and Professionals

Hosted by Inclusion International's Deinstitutionalisation Working Group

This session brings together two important groups - people with intellectual disabilities who used to live in institutions, and professionals who helped close institutions. They will give ideas on how to do a better job closing institutions in the future.

Closing Institutions

Film Screening

Let's Fly to the Sky: Our Challenge for Independence

Hosted by Pansy Media

Join us for a film screening of Pansy Media's film about closing institutions in Japan, sharing the message that everyone can live in the community with the right support.

After the film, there will be a question and answer session with the organisation who made the film.

Doing Deinstitutionalisation

Hosted by Inclusion Europe

This is a session about how we can actually close institutions - not just talk about it. It will be about how we connect people who know how to close institutions to the people trying to do it.

Sessions about Community Services and Inclusion

These sessions are about inclusion in the community.

The sessions are about what people need to live a good life in their community.

There are session about services in the community.

There are also sessions about other ways to include people in communities.

Keys to living a quality life in an inclusive community

Hosted by Plena Inclusión España, PAPID Taiwan, and Inclusion Interational

A quality life in community is about more than where you live. The keys to a quality life are about how we are part of our community. This session will look at what supports and tools people need to live a quality, inclusive life in community.

Community Inclusion

Community Services for All - In Good Times and In Crisis

Hosted by Inclusion International's Deinstitutionalisation Working Group

Persons with intellectual disabilities have the right to live in the community - always. But during humanitarian crises or emergencies, persons with disabilities are often left behind. In this session, speakers will share how we can make sure people always get their right to live in the community - even in crisis.

Supporting with Purpose: Listening, Including, and Respecting Every Step of the Way

Hosted by Keysone Human Services International and the Tukena Foundation

This session will about how organisations that provide services can make sure they are working in an inclusive way, and giving good support. The session will talk about ways of working and resources that service providers can use to be fully inclusive.

Sessions about Education

These sessions are about inclusive education.

The sessions are about things like:

- What inclusion education is like for students and families
- Moving from segregated (special) education to inclusion
- Doing advocacy about inclusive and education
- and more!

Inclusive Education in a changing world

Hosted by Inclusion International's Catalyst for Inclusion Education Programme

This session will look at big new changes — like how funding, global policies, and leadership are affecting the future of inclusive education.

Click here to go back to the topic list

Education

Experiences in Inclusive Education from Self-Advocates and Families

Hosted by Emirates Down Syndrome Association and Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services

This session will talk about what going through an inclusive education system is like for people with intellectual disabilities and their families. Hear examples of experiences from early education to higher education.

Connecting Policy and Practice for Inclusive Education

Hosted by Inclusion International's Catalyst for Inclusion Education Programme and Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services

Self-advocates and family members will talk about how education policies have affected their inclusion at school. They will talk about challenges with inclusive policies, and share how we can influence education policies to be inclusive.

Education

Mental Health at School is a Right, not a Choice

Hosted by Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services and Crisis Prevention Center LLC

This session is about well-being for people with disabilities in education. We will talk about positive relationships, and how to make sure learners feel safe. We will share real stories of students who have overcome their challenges and become heroes in their own lives.

From Special School to Inclusive Education: How to Make the Shift

Hosted by Instituto Jô Clemente

In 2008, Instituto Jô Clemente closed the special school it had run for many years - instead, they chose to support inclusive education. This session will share examples of how organisations can make the shift from supporting special education to supporting inclusive education.

Education

The Impact of Inclusion in Post-Secondary Education

Hosted by Inclusion Alberta

This session will share successful examples of inclusion in universities, colleges, and other higher education. Learn about the real impact that inclusion of people with intellectual disabilities in higher education has had on the students, those with and without disabilities, and their professors.

Using Our Network's Resources to Make Inclusive Education Happen Faster

Hosted by Inclusion International's Catalyst for Inclusion Education Programme

In this session, we will share tools and resources that can help put Inclusion International's inclusive education goals into action.

Education

Accepting Differences in the Inclusive Education Classroom

Hosted by Down Syndrome South Africa and Education and English for You (EEFY) Cote D'Ivoire

Hear about different ways of creating classrooms that include everyone and support everyone to participate - not only people with intellectual disabilities, but other excluded groups too!

Catalyst Advice Session – Peer Support on Inclusive Education in Niger

Hosted by Inclusion International's Catalyst for Inclusion Education Programme

Hear members of Inclusion International talk about what inclusive education looks like in Niger. They will share what is working well, what challenges they face, and where they need help from the network. Other members and the Catalyst team will give advice and support.

Education

Our Vision of Inclusive Education

Hosted by Inclusion International's Catalyst for Inclusion Education Programme

This discussion session is a chance for Inclusion International's members to come together and share how they are putting our vision for inclusive education into practice.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Sessions about Employment

These sessions are about getting jobs.

Some sessions are about different ways to help people get jobs.

There are also sessions about what work is like for people with intellectual disabilities.

The Role of Families and Communities in Inclusive Employment

Hosted by Inclusion Alberta and Belonging Matters

This session is about successful ways to create jobs for people with an intellectual disability. The presenters will share good examples from Canada and Australia. This session will share how families, inclusion from childhood to adulthood, and communities have made it possible for people to get employment and be included at work.

Click here to go back to the topic list

Employment

Self-Advocates' Employment Experiences

Hosted by PAPID Taiwan & Inclusion Taiwan, United Voice Malaysia, and Inclusion International

Self-advocates will talk about their experiences working. For example, experiences changing careers and experiences of being their own boss.

Inclusive Employment Programmes: Examples

Hosted by Inclusion International's Employment Working Group

Hear examples from around the world about programmes that are supporting people with intellectual disabilities to get real jobs for real pay in the community.

Employment

Inclusive Social Enterprises

Hosted by ArcThrift, PFPID Nepal, and Agonista

The session will share examples of how organisations can create social enterprises that employ and provide training for people with intellectual disabilities, while also being a successful business model.

Lifelong Inclusion: Supporting Transition from School to Work

Hosted by Thorncliffe Park Autism Support Network and IRODA Tajikistan

Learn how to make sure transitions go smoothly at every stage of life - from early intervention to vocational training to employment. Hear about how community, schools and employers can work together to support people at all stages.

Sessions about Global Advocacy

These sessions are about how we do advocacy at the international level.

The sessions are about ways to make your advocacy stronger.

For example, by using new advocacy skills or working on important new topics.

How we can use the Global Disability Inclusion Report

Hosted by Inclusion International

Learn about the Global Disability Inclusion Report. The global trends will be explained. We will talk about what they mean for our network and how we can use the report.

Global Advocacy

Using Data for Advocacy

Hosted by Inclusion Europe and IHC New Zealand

This session will share how data (tracking numbers) can be used to make advocacy stronger. Hear examples from Inclusion Europe and their Inclusion Indicators, and from IHC on their Health and Wellbeing indicators in New Zealand. Learn about how organisations can use data to understand what life is like for people with intellectual disabilities and how we can use it to advocate.

Getting Involved in International Climate Change Advocacy

Independent Host

Hear from the United Nations Regional Goodwill Ambassador for Climate Action about how to get engaged in climate issues at the international level.

Sessions about Health

These sessions are about health.

They might be about the challenges people have trying to get healthcare.

Or about ways to make the health system better.

Helping Doctors Understand Inclusion

Hosted by Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services

Health systems often do not treat people with intellectual disabilities equally. This session will talk about how organisations are training doctors to do things in a more inclusive way.

Health

Working Towards More Inclusive Health

Hosted by Down Syndrome Australia and Down Syndrome International

Hear about some of the barriers that people with Down Syndrome face trying to get good healthcare - and how organisations of people with Down Syndrome are doing work to make health care better for all people with intellectual disabilities.

Pushing Back Against Assisted Dying/Euthanasia for People with Disabilities

Hosted by Inclusion Canada

In some countries, laws have been changed so that having a disability is a reason for someone to access assisted dying (euthanasia). Learn how to advocate against the expansion of these laws to protect the rights of people with disabilities - based on lessons from Canada's experience.

Sessions about Inclusive Participation

These sessions are about inclusive participation.

Inclusive participation is what happens when someone gets all of the support they need to fully take part.

Some of the important topics are:

- How people with intellectual disabilities can fully take part in the work organisations do
- How we can include people who have high support needs

Making and Using Easy to Understand Formats

Hosted by Inclusion International and Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services

This session is about different types of easy to understand formats - like easy read, accessible videos, and other ways to make information easier. We will talk about how different formats can be used in different ways.

Inclusive Participation

Inclusion in action: empowering people with complex needs

Hosted by the Swedish National Association JAG and the Finnish National Association JAG

Hear experiences from Sweden and Finland about work for real inclusion of people with complex needs. Through personal stories, films, and lived experience, hear about how self-advocacy, family support, and personal assistance make independent living and full participation in society possible – even for those with the most highest support needs.

Making Governance Inclusive

Hosted by Inclusion International, TASH, and Friendly Barn Development Foundation

People with intellectual disabilities should be taking part in decision making in organisations. Hear good examples of how to include people with intellectual disabilities on Boards, and how to make sure all decision making in an organisation is inclusive.

Inclusive Participation

Using Listen Include Respect to Create Inclusive Organisations

Hosted by Inclusion International and Community Living Toronto

This session will share different ways Inclusion International members have used Listen Include Respect to make their ways of working more inclusive. There will be time to hear from members about their experiences, and time to talk to Listen Include Respect experts about how you can use the guidelines.

Talking, Participating, Making difference: Ways of Giving Good Support

Hosted by Sisobel and Sharjah City for Humanitarian Services

This session is about ways to support people with high support needs - from communication and self-expression, community inclusion and beyond. Hear from organisations about how they give good support to people who have a hard time expressing themselves and communicating.

Inclusive Participation

What is the future for people with disability who have high support needs and little or no speech?

Independent Host

Some people with intellectual disability have very high support needs and need a lot of help to communicate and be understood. These people often need others to speak up for them. People like this are often put in institutions and not included in the community. What do we need to do to make sure that this group of people with disabilities are included?

Sessions about International Development and Crisis Situations

These sessions are about international development or about crisis situations.

“International development” is about trying to make things better in countries that have less money and resources.

Crisis situations could be things like a war or a flood. These things often mean people have to leave their homes.

People also call this a “humanitarian situation.”

Putting people with disabilities at the center of inclusive education in emergencies

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session will talk about why inclusive education is important in places affected by crisis. It will also share experiences from Inclusion International members who work on education in crisis situations.

Click here to go back to the topic list

International Development and Crisis Situations

Including Girls with Intellectual Disabilities in Humanitarian Action

Hosted by Fikir Ethiopia National Association on Intellectual Disabilities and APEE

Young girls with intellectual disabilities are not included in crisis situations. This session will talk about work done in Ethiopia and Burkina Faso to find out what girls need in crisis. It will shape recommendations for what humanitarian organisations can do differently.

Inclusive International Development Projects

Hosted by Inclusion International and Women Enabled International

Big international development projects usually don't include people with intellectual disabilities and their families, but this session will talk about how we can do things differently. Hear examples of projects that used inclusive ways of working to make sure everyone was included in development work.

International Development and Crisis Situations

Together for Inclusion – collaboration between Organisations of Persons with Disabilities (OPDs) and NGOs

Hosted by Norwegian Association for Persons with Intellectual Disabilities (NFU), Fikir Ethiopia National Association on Intellectual Disabilities and Inclusion Uganda

This session will share how organisations of persons with disabilities (OPDs) and other organisations (NGOs) can work together well, sharing the example of the Together for Inclusion (TOFI) Project. It brought together organizations of people with disabilities in Norway and some of the country's biggest and most trusted NGOs. They worked as a team to support people who are often left out, by helping to build strong organizations, promote disability rights, improve access to education, and create job opportunities. The speakers will talk about what they learned from working together on this project.

International Development and Crisis Situations

Our Role in International Cooperation

Hosted by Inclusion International's Inclusive Development Working Group

This is a consultation for member organisation of Inclusion International who have been involved in international cooperation work. We will work together to create messages for funders, INGOs, and others about our role in inclusive international development.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Sessions about The Right to Decide

These sessions are about the right to make decisions.

This is also called “legal capacity.”

Sessions are about things like:

- How we can change laws to make sure we have the right to decide
- Ways to give support for decision making
- Important choices that people with intellectual disabilities make in their lives

Changing the law on legal capacity: success stories

Hosted by Asdown Colombia, Instituto Jô Clemente, and CONFE

Learn from the examples of organisations who have managed to change the legal capacity laws in their country.

Click here to go back to the topic list

The Right to Decide

“Interpretive supports”: Supporting people with significant disabilities to make choices

Hosted by the New Society Institute

The session will explain what interpretive supports are - a way of understanding someone based on their words, gestures, body language, and sounds. It will show how this can help us understand what people with more significant disabilities want and need.

Making Legal Capacity Work In Practice

Hosted by the Kenya Association of the Intellectually Handicapped and CONFE Mexico

Hear about what it really takes to make the right to legal capacity real, beyond just the law. Speakers will share experiences from Kenya, Mexico, and Japan about moving away from guardianship and toward inclusive decision-making support.

The Right to Decide

Making Decisions for Ourselves! Women with Intellectual Disabilities and Legal Capacity

Hosted by Women Enabled International

Learn about a global report on the right to legal capacity of women with intellectual disabilities. We will share what we learned during the research about making decisions about women's health, relationships, and having children.

Sessions about Self-Advocacy

These sessions are about self-advocacy.

Some of them are for organisations - for example, talking about how to support self-advocacy groups.

Some of them are for self-advocates - for example, talking about how to make decisions in your own life.

Our Voice: Self-Advocacy, a Way of Life

Hosted by Alexandria Self-Advocacy Resource Group, Plena Inclusion, and Lebenshilfe

Self-advocates from different countries will talk about ways to promote self-advocacy. These examples can help organisations to grow their self-advocacy work, with people with intellectual disabilities in the lead.

Click here to go back to the topic list

Self-Advocacy

Working Together Across Borders: How Self-Advocates Help Each Other Create Change

Hosted by Community Living Toronto and the Alexandria Self-Advocacy Resource Group

In this session we will talk about the importance of self-advocates from different countries supporting each other. We will talk about how working together makes us stronger and helps us overcome challenges.

Strengthening Self-Advocates, and Creating Self-Advocacy Groups

Hosted by Inclusion International, SCHS, and Keystone India

This session is about things organisations can do to help people with intellectual disabilities become self-advocates, and then how organisations can support self-advocates to become new self-advocacy groups.

Self-Advocacy

Find Your Voice: Speak Up and Be Heard!

Hosted by the European Platform of Self-Advocates (EPSA)

This session will focus on empowering self-advocates to speak up for themselves in their own lives. Using group activities, self-advocates will work on how to build confidence, set boundaries, ask for support, and stay in control of your own choices. Families and professionals will also learn how to support without taking over.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

How to Get Good Support

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session is for self-advocates. We will talk about good support. We will talk about what good support looks like and how to ask for it.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Click here to go back to the topic list

Self-Advocacy

A Media Revolution Led by Self-Advocacy

Hosted by Pansy Media

This session is about how self-advocates can use the media to share what they think and feel. Hear from self-advocates from Japan who create content and a self-advocate from Egypt who is a TV presenter about how they use media to share messages about inclusion.

How Self-Advocates can Speak Up at the United Nations CRPD Committee

Hosted by Inclusion International

Hear experiences from self-advocates who took part in United Nations CRPD Committee's review of their country. A new toolkit to help self-advocates be part of country reviews by United Nations Committees will also be shared.

Sessions about Families

These sessions are about support for families.

For example, are about different topics like:

- How to help families believe in inclusion
- How to find family leaders
- People with intellectual disabilities starting families,
- and more!

Family leaders for the future

Hosted by Inclusion International's Siblings Working Group
and Families Discussion Group

A strong movement for inclusion needs strong leaders. The session will talk about how we can support family leadership for our future - especially siblings as future leaders of organisations and advocacy.

Click here to go back to the topic list

Families

Support for Families: A Pending Question

Hosted by Plena inclusión España, CONFEMEX Mexico

The families of people with disabilities also need support. But we don't often ask them what support they need and how. In this session, we want to share experiences from different countries where we've worked in supporting families, to share what we've learned and what we still need to work on.

Siblings as Leaders in the Family

Hosted by Special Olympics International and Inclusion International's Siblings Working Group

This session is about how to support siblings in their role in families. The session will talk about how to get siblings more involved, and how siblings can be leaders in the family.

Families

Supporting Families to Become Strong Advocates

Hosted by Inclusion International

Family groups are important advocates in their communities - hear examples from Latin America and sub-Saharan Africa about how we can support family groups to come together and start to become advocates.

Building a Vision for Inclusion - At Home and in the Community

Hosted by Inclusion International

Families need a vision about what is possible so they can dream big for their family member with an intellectual disability. Our communities need a vision for inclusion to understand how to support people and their families to live a valued life. This session will explore how we can help build a vision for inclusion.

Families

Questions, Not Commands

Independent Host

This session is for families of people with intellectual disabilities. It will share stories of how family members can have an inclusive approach to supporting their family members, and to advocating.

Let's be Partners, Not Competitors - How families and self-advocates can work together well

Hosted by PAPID Taiwan, Kenya Association of the Intellectually Handicapped, and SABE

This session is about how self-advocates and families can support each other and work well together. Sometimes they may feel like they are in competition. We will hear good examples from groups who work together well.

Families

Connecting Siblings for Change

Hosted by Inclusion International's Siblings Working Group

This session is for siblings, by siblings. This session will be about why having siblings in organisations is important, and how organisations can include siblings better. The group will work together to create an action plan for how our network can engage siblings better. Only people who have a sibling with an intellectual disability can come to this session.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Our Right to Family: Challenges, Stories, and Hope

Hosted by Plena Inclusión España and SCHS

Everyone has the right to form a family, including those with disabilities. In this session, we will hear real-life experiences, discuss the support that is needed, and think together about how to move forward to make this right a reality for everyone.

Click here to go back to the topic list

Families

How Families can support Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights

Hosted by Sightsavers, Down Syndrome Foundation Nigeria, Asdown Colombia, Profamilia, and Corbrook

This session will talk about role of family members and caregivers in supporting the sexual and reproductive health and rights of people with intellectual disabilities. We will talk about common fears and overprotective attitudes that families might have, and talk about how families can support people to make their own choices.

Skills for Organisations

These sessions are for people who work for organisations.

They are about different things that help make organisations strong.

For example, things like how to do fundraising or how to work in partnership.

Using Social Media for Advocacy

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session is for people in the Inclusion International network who use social media to share their organisation's work. Hear about what works when posting about advocacy, with practical tips and activities to help people create strong messages that show impact.

Skills for Organisations

How-To: Fundraising

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session shares good examples of successful fundraising. Come home with new fundraising strategies that you can try in your organisation!

How to Document Your Work

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session will help organisations document their work so others can learn from it. We will look at different ways to capture lessons learned—case studies, reports, one-pagers, and methodologies—as well as how to use photos, videos, and case studies to share learning.

Skills for Organisations

How-To: Campaigning

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session shares good examples of successful campaigning. Come home with new fundraising strategies that you can try in your organisation!

How to Make the Most of Inclusion International's Resources

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session will show members what resources they can access through Inclusion International. Learn about:

- What tools are available
- Where find them
- How to use them, and
- Who to ask for help

Skills for Organisations

Want Inclusion? Build Leadership

Hosted by the National Leadership Consortium

This session will share stories, strategies, and research from several organizations that have developed strong leaders who have gone in to build more inclusive communities

How-To: Working with Other Social Movements

Hosted by Inclusion International

Organisations of people with intellectual disabilities and their families can't work alone - we're stronger when we partner with other movements that share the same goals. Hear examples of how organisations in the Inclusion network have worked with the cross-disability movement, the women's movement, and more to make their work stronger.

Skills for Organisations

How-To: Use the Courts to Make Change

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session will share the steps for how organisations can use "strategic litigation" (court cases) to make big changes in their country. Hear examples from organisations in our network who have done this.

Other Topics

These sessions are all about different topics.

They don't fit into one of the big themes.

How self-advocates and families can work on climate change

Hosted by Inclusion Africa, FEPAPDEM, and CONFE

This session will be about how self-advocates and families can do work on climate change. Hear examples of self-advocacy groups and family groups in Latin America and Africa doing this work.

Click here to go back to the topic list

Other Topics

What does an inclusive social protection system look like?

SCHS and Inclusion International

This session is about social protection systems (government benefits) that are inclusive. Hear how different countries have made social protection more inclusive of persons with intellectual disabilities and their families.

Protecting Women and Girls from Gender Based Violence

AGUIPHAM Guinea, APEE Burkina Faso, and Inclusion Africa

This session is about we can keep women and girls with intellectual disabilities safe from gender based violence by educating girls and educating the community.

Other Topics

Doing Inclusive Research

Hosted by Inclusion International

Research about people with intellectual disabilities should happen with people with intellectual disabilities. Hear different examples from around the world of how people with intellectual disabilities were fully included in or led research projects.

Political participation of people with intellectual disabilities

Hosted by La Chrysalide Benin, Disability Inclusion Rwanda, and APAPE Togo

This session is about how to get self-advocates involved in political life in their countries. The session will share tools that give people with intellectual disabilities the information they need to have their full rights as a citizen.

Other Topics

Why is the care agenda important to us?

Hosted by Inclusion International

This session will present the "care agenda" and explain why it is important for our network to be involved. Organisations involved in work on care and support will share their experiences.

Our Network's Messages on Care and Support

Hosted by Inclusion International

In this workshop we will discuss and plan our messages to share at the next International Day on Care and Support. Come with your ideas!

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Click here to go back to the topic list

Other Topics

Members only Regional Session - Africa

Hosted by Inclusion Africa

This is a session for Inclusion International members in the region to come together and have a conversation about issues in their region. They will reflect on what they have heard so far at the World Congress, and how they will use it to strengthen their work in the region.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Members only Regional Session - Americas

Hosted by Inclusion International Regional Representatives

This is a session for Inclusion International members in the region to come together and have a conversation about issues in their region. They will reflect on what they have heard so far at the World Congress, and how they will use it to strengthen their work in the region.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Click here to go back to the topic list

Other Topics

Members only Regional Session - Asia-Pacific

Hosted by Inclusion International Regional Representatives

This is a session for Inclusion International members in the region to come together and have a conversation about issues in their region. They will reflect on what they have heard so far at the World Congress, and how they will use it to strengthen their work in the region.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Members only Regional Session - Europe

Hosted by Inclusion Europe

This is a session for Inclusion International members in the region to come together and have a conversation about issues in their region. They will reflect on what they have heard so far at the World Congress, and how they will use it to strengthen their work in the region.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

Click here to go back to the topic list

Other Topics

Members only Regional Session - MENA

Hosted by Inclusion MENA

This is a session for Inclusion International members in the region to come together and have a conversation about issues in their region. They will reflect on what they have heard so far at the World Congress, and how they will use it to strengthen their work in the region.

Workshop Session - Come ready to talk!

September 15 - 17, 2025

Inclusion international

WORLD CONGRESS 2025

WE ARE INCLUSION

